NOTIFICATION OF DOCKET ENTRY

This docket entry was made by the Clerk on Thursday, April 30, 2020:

MINUTE entry before the Honorable Matthew F. Kennelly: This order is entered by Judge Kennelly, as emergency judge, on the emergency docket (20 C 1792) and on the docket of Mays v. Dart (20 C 2134). International Brotherhood of Teamsters Local 700 has filed a motion to intervene in the Mays case and has filed it not only on the docket in that case but also on the emergency docket. The motion, however, does not describe any emergency. Indeed, it says (in paragraph 6) that the movant "does not seek reconsideration of any preliminary rulings entered thus far" and instead seeks to protect the interest of the plaintiff's members "as complications arise with the implementation of those rulings" or "as the Court considers permanent relief," neither of which appear to describe emergencies. The Court therefore terminates the motion on the emergency docket. If movant considers the motion to present an emergency, then it should file an amended motion on the emergency docket. Otherwise, the motion can appropriately be dealt with by the assigned judge in the Mays case. (mk)
